HEROIC WORK OF BRAVE RESCUERS

from the snow upon which he sunk in a stupor, and with coaxing, threats, insults and blows, forced to aid himself as much as possible. This worked for a time and then the cold proved victor and he again gave away to its influence. He was carried a few steps by two of the company, who in their weakened condition would fail, and others would take their places until all strength gave away, and thus the unconscious man was finally landed at the cabin. Here he was stripped and rubbed with snow until his senses returning, he begged for mercy. The heroic methods won out and soon, filled with hot coffee and warmly wrapped in the blankets, he was allowed to drop away into slumber.

Start for Home.
Daylight soon came and the little party was ready for action, and for home, bearing with them Jones, who must have medical attention or die. A sled was arranged and he was strapped upon it. A hunt of a scarce hour was made for the bodies of the two women, but this was given up to care for the living, and then the party started on the hard trip up the hills and down the canyons to the Washoe valley, where Doctor Cice and wagons had been summoned to meet the party.

Ten men, tired and worn out with the terrible night's journey, wet, cold and hungry, started out upon a trip that took seven hours to accomplish and that was without a doubt one of the hardest ever made in the west.

The Fight Is Won.

They made the trip, they won the fight. The man was delivered into the hands of a physician and stands a good chance of recovery. His feet and legs were frightfully frozen, as are his hands; one eye has been destroyed and his face torn and bruised; pneumonia also threatens his life; still his heart is strong and he may live.

He lies at the home of his brother, George Jones, in this city, and will be given the best medical attention possible.

Women Still Unfound.

Somewhere in the masses of ice and snow that cover the canyons and gullies of that section, lie the bodies of two women. Death came to them without warning during the dark watches of the night. One husband you have heard of, and yesterday, another husband, doing his duty for his employers at the Tunnel on the pipe line, was notified of his sorrow. Mounted on his snow shoes, he overtook us on our way and from our lips learned the full account of the sad story.

Recovered Husband Searches.

He marched with us for a short way, then turned and said:

"I thank you for what you have done; but I'm going to find the body of my wife and her friend, if God will show me where they lie."

There is no thanks asked for by the men who made up the party, for they did as they would have been done by. They were Sheriff Regan, State Policemen Taylor, Fravel, McNeil and Clark, George Jones, "Zip" Emmitt, Mat Farrell, Pat Farrell, William Evans, Kenneth Booth, Mr. Chappell, Roy Sprague and the writer.

WEALTHY MEN IN SQUARED CIRCLE

ANTHONY DREXEL BIDDLE AND
HON. ROBERT BERESFORD
BATTLE FOR SILVER CUP

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The much talked of boxing bout between Anthony J. Drexel of Philadelphia, husband of Marjorie Gould, and the Hon. Robert Beresford of England, a brother of Lord Decies, took place on Saturday night last in a private gymnasium at Georgian Court, the Gould country home, at Lakewood, N. J., according to the stories printed by several New York newspapers yesterday.

Details of the bout vary, but all agree that "Battling Bobby" was victorious after three rounds of fighting. One version says that "Young Drexel" was knocked out; all assert that at any rate his seconds threw up the sponge in the third round. The bout was scheduled to go six rounds. Beresford weighed 166 pounds; Drexel 161. They were clad in regulation fighting togs and Mrs. George Gould gave a silver cup to the winner.

The bout was witnessed by the family of George Gould, and a score of guests, including Lord Decies, his mother and sister.
